Notes for CRISTOFARO LODICO:

The story of the LoDico ancestry begins in Malpasso and is tied to one of the most ancient roads in Sicily.. By the end of the 17th century there was still one road that went from the coastal town of Catania, inland through the Madonie mountains to the north coastal town of Palermo. This roadway was one of the very first roads in Sicily and was used by the first of the island's inhabitants: the Sicans, Sicels, and Elymians. In its earliest times the towns of Centuripe and Agyrium brought an exchange of goods arriving by sea with ceramics and obsidian brought out from inland. This road was later improved by the Romans and it passed through Blufi in a region called Malpasso [bad pass]. This was a dangerous stretch of road known for its steep ravines and high bluffs where criminals and others would attack and rob the travelers. The priests, pilgrims, and merchants complained to the Sicilian nobility and asked for protection. The Marchese Pottino who owned many large estates of land and farms around Rusuttano and Blufi, including the ancestral Castello Irosa, entered into an agreement with three Sicilian campiere families: the LaTonas, the di Geraci, and the LoDicos. In return for protecting the travelers on the road, the LoDico family was given the land known as Malpasso.

He married LUCIA BELLAVIA 04 Jun 1869 in Marianopoli, Sicily, daughter of MICHELE BELLAVIA and STEFANA ABBATE. She was born 16 Oct 1848 in Marianopoli, Sicily, and died in Marianopoli, Sicily.

Notes for LUCIANO LODICO:

Luciano listed his occupations, with each child, as follows: campiere (armed field guard) (1870 & 1880); mounted soldier (1873- 1878); mounted guard (1882); mounted soldier (1887); soldier (1880); and finally a 'soprastante' (overseer) (1892).

A 'soprastante' was charged, by the land-owner or lease-holder, to take charge of the management of an estate. The soprastante', as a rule, were strong men and were recruited for this post, from those who were able to 'make themselves respected -- inspire fear -- among the people of the estates, as well as outsiders. Most overseers were men of confidence (uomo di fiducia) of the 'gabelloto' lease-owner. He dealt with the peasants set to work on the estates and took care of the general protection of the enterprise. He was usually assisted by an armed campiere on horseback, who watched over the fields, crops, and animals.

Like the overseer, a campiere (armed field guard) had a reputation for toughness, which they advertised by their arrogant airs and their carrying of arms. The ways in which some of them dressed, moved around, and squinted, symbolized toughness. Their reticence and the opaque ambiguity of phrases, gestures, and mimic signs they used among their peers set them apart from ordinary people.

Though these strong arm men were, at times, strikingly polite and cordial, their general behavior and outfit expressed a capacity and willingness to coerce with physical violence. The campiere constituted a kind of private police force which, in the absence of an efficient formal control apparatus, claimed to maintain law and order in the countryside.

Giuseppe LoDico was a policeman in Petralia Soprana. In later years he directed the town band. On April 7th, 2005 while I was visiting Petralia Soprana, Giuseppe died just before I had a chance to meet him. The funeral was attended by most of the town and the procession traveled to the cemetery with the band members playing a final tribute to their leader. When the procession passed the local police station a detail of Carabinieri, in full dress uniform, stood at attention and gave a final salute to one of their own.

Notes for GIUSEPPE LODICO:

Giuseppe LoDico served as a witness to many matrimony records in 1891. In 1896 he served as "IL Consigliere" (Advisor to the Town Council) for the town of Marianopoli. In that year he signed every birth record in the town hall.

The Fragments of Local Stories (Marianopoli 1900-1950) begin with a discussion of how in the summer of 1911, cholera came to Marianopoli.

The town counsel "la Giunta" had to figure out a way to isolate infected people coming into town . So in July of 1911, they charged Giuseppe LoDico with the task of checking people coming in by train from infected areas like Palermo. Twice a day he disinfected people and baggage in a special room near the train station constructed for this purpose. His vigilance kept the contagion small enough that when the town called in Doctor Vincenzo Ferrara, he was able to control the outbreak before it became widespread.

Notes for ANGELA MARIA LUCIA LODICO:

Angelina Lo Dico, Giuseppe's daughter, was born in Marianopoli in 1900. Her father Giuseppe ran the town's only pharmacy. Giuseppe's wife, Angelina Immordino, was a teacher from Villalba. (The LoDicos are described as one of the most educated families of the time.)

Young Angelina was very religious. Her uncle, a priest, molded and encouraged Angelina, and she was completely dedicated to God and belonged to numerous religious groups. When she was 21, she was sent to Tinchì, near Pisticci, in the province of Matera to teach school. Living in a little room attached to a school that used to be a barn, she prayed all night, and during the day, she taught her students and led them in prayer. On Sundays she walked all the way to Pisticci (11 kms) because there was no Mass in Tinchì. The people of Tinchì admired her spirituality so much, they walked to mass with her. But she was disturbed that many peasants could not do this, and she worked hard to persuade Pisticci's priest to say mass at the school house, comparing it to the barn in Bethlehem.

She became determined to build a little chapel in Tinchì, and she had her students piled up stones and bricks and straw near the school. But she had no money to pay workers to build a chapel. She began working in the fields gathering greens to sell in Pisticci on Sundays, along with the few eggs her students were able to give her. On Palm Sunday in 1929, The Chapel of Christ the King (Cappella a Cristo Re) was inaugurated.

With her missionary spirit, Angelina continued walking all through the area and in all kinds of weather to talk about God and minister to the sick. A great many were afflicted with tuberculosis and malaria, and they took comfort from her. Also, she was the only person in the area who knew how to give inoculations.

One day, she heard about a young man who was homeless and close to death from fever. Angelina gave up her bed to him, and slept on a bench in the schoolhouse. To those who called this imprudent, she said, "Might Jesus not have been in this sick young man?" Some time later, a young girl sick with with "tisi" (tuberculous) came to town, and Angelina took her in and nursed her till she could take care of herself.

This may have caused the illness that eventually killed her. She was forced to return home to her family in Marianopoli in 1930. She died in her mother's arms in 1932.

In Tinchì she is remembered as "the teacher saint." The townspeople put a commemorative plaque about her on the wall of the chapel, which is now called Cappella LoDico.

CRISTOFARO¹) was born 22 Aug 1862 in Bompietro, Sicily, and died 25 Mar 1922 in Mansfield, Mass.. He married FRANCESCA (PAULA) BARBARA RESTIVO 12 Sep 1896 in Marianopoli, Sicily, daughter of CARMELO RESTIVO and ARCANGELA RISTAGNO. She was born 06 Jun 1869 in Villalba, Sicily, and died 11 Jan 1952 in Quincy, Mass..

Notes for IGNAZIO LODICO:

My father's only recollection of his father, my grandfather Ignazio, was that of a child around age 5 or 6. Ignazio died when my father was 7. My dad recalled that Ignazio would come home late from working in his barber shop off Pleasant St. in Mansfield, Mass., and empty his pockets full of change in his top dresser drawer. As a small boy, my father would sneak in the bedroom and go through the drawer and take a few coins. He said he never was caught.

My Uncle Americo Faiella, husband of Mary LoDico, recalled the time he approached Ignazio to ask for the hand of Mary and his blessing. Americo said Ignazio "called me down", referring to the fact that Ignazio thought it was time Americo, then a young man of 22, should begin to settle down and think of his future and how to act properly as a 'man' about to be married. Americo said Ignazio gave him cause to think and do the right thing.

My Aunt Angelina had the best recollection of her father Ignazio and the family's last days in Marianopoli. She was around 14 at the time. She recalls her older brother Frank had a bird and he made a cage for it. Frank was good with his hands. He raised the bird until one day the cat killed it. Saddened by this, Ignazio told him, "Get another bird".

In 1906, the family would often hold a dance with supper in Marianopoli. The family played a few instruments including the mandolin, guitar, and violin. Two rich kids came by and began to cause trouble so Ignazio kicked them out. When Frank left his music lessons, they were waiting for him. They pulled out their guns and beat him up. They left him at the doorstep at 4 o'clock in the morning. The doctor reported the beating to the police and one kid, Salvatore Marci was sent to jail. When he got out of jail, Francesca Paola was worried, so Frank left for America (Pennsylvania). In 1907, September, Francesca was still worried so Ignazio went to America for a second time. Then the others followed.

In the San Prospero church records of Marianopoli, Sicily, the baptism of Carmelo is recorded on page 83 #37 3/20/1895 with the side note on 6/9/1935 Carmelo married Maria Selvaggio {Mary Savage} in St. John Rectory in Quincy, Mass.

They had no children. Carmelo and Mary ran a beauty shop on Germain Ave., in Quincy in the 1930s. Carmelo was a barber and Mary was a hairdresser. In the 1940s their beauty shop was on 21 Granite St.

My dad's favorite story to tell about his brother Charlie (who was 4'10) was having to come home after school as a teenage to violin lessons. Charlie, the older brother would demand that my father go upstairs and practice. One day after Charlie left the house, my father stopped practicing and was checking out his brother's clothes in the closet. He tried on one of his dress shirts and discovered he couldn't button the collar. When Charlie came home and found his brother not practicing he threatened him as usual. My dad stood up to him and said his days playing the violin were over. Charlie looked at him, up and down, then agreed.

He later coached the high school team at Park Row. The 1930 census shows James, age 24 still living at 15 Newton St. He was a meat cutter, and for a time worked in his brother's meat store in Sharon, Mass. He married the former Catherine Lillian Cartwright Lanergan and they had 4 children together. Francesco (Frank) was very proud to be American and was quite patriotic. He was a Barber by trade and a sign painter, but it was the depression, so the family was not wealthy, but they did alright considering the times.

Frank was renowned as a terrific gardener and grew squash and zucchini that were 3 ft long! We have photos of him holding one of his famous vegetables.

Frank had a reputation as a prankster. When he first opened his barber shop in Mansfield, Mass., in the late 1920's, he would constantly tease and joke with the old Italian men who came to hang out at the barber shop. One story tells of how he would entertain the men with tales of his fighting in the Risorgimento and as a Carbonari. He would tell them before he served as a Sicilian patriot he was tall and strong. He would say now, after years of fighting for Sicily, he was shrinking. He would point to the ceiling fan and show how he could just reach the pull cord. The next day he would come in early and shorten the cord. He would tell another tale and then end with reaching for the pull cord. The old men looked on in wonder as he could not reach the cord. Only when they agreed he was shrinking would he burst out in laughter and tell them the joke.

Frank died suddenly of heart failure when in his late 50's. His wife Catherine moved to Attleboro to live with her daughter Paula and they worked at Balfour Company in Attleboro, MA. When Joan was divorced from her husband, she joined her mother and sister and they resided together. Catherine (Kay) died in 1973 of heart failure.

Notes for ANGELA (ANGELINA) LODICO:

Angelina married Aristodemo (Rooster) Albertini. Their children are Rena, Aurora, Eleanor, and Alfred.

Angelina emigrated from Marianopoli to Mansfield and went to work in Mansfield's chocolate factory the first week she arrived. She made $4 a week wages.

My grandfather Ignazio was famous for writing passion plays in Mansfield in the early years of living in Mansfield [1910-1920]. Angelina performed in these passion plays. The entire family played instruments, danced and sang and continued to entertain in Mansfield as they had done in Marianopoli, Sicily.

My earliest memories of Angelina was from 1956 and attending 1st grade. I would have to walk past her home and many times I would be ushered inside to have lunch. My Aunt Angelina spoke little English, yet I somehow understood enough of what she said. Her house was always filled with the smells of Sicilian twist bread and homemade pasta. It seemed she was always cooking, making breads and pastas, yet she lived alone.

MARIA (MARY) MARGHERITA ELENA⁸ LODICO (IGNAZIO⁷, FRANCESCO PAOLO⁶, IGNAZIO⁵, FRANCESCO PAOLO⁴, MAURO³, CALOGERO², CRISTOFARO¹) was born 25 Oct 1901 in Marianopoli, Sicily, and died 15 Sep 1992 in Quincy, Mass.. She married AMERICO ALFREDO CARLO FAIELLA, son of LUIGI FAIELLA and EUGENIA FARNETI. He was born 07 Apr 1897 in Minas Garnes, Brazil, and died 14 Aug 1980 in Quincy, Mass..

Notes for MARIA (MARY) MARGHERITA ELENA LODICO:

Maria (Mary) married Americo Faiella and lived at 15 Newton St., Mansfield, Mass. with Americo at her father Ignazio's house according to the 1920 census.

My Aunt Mary once told me of the story of her arrival at Ellis Island as a child of 10. She recalled being separated along with her sister Giovanna (Jenny) from her mother Francesca and baby brother Vincenzo by a doctor. They both had eye infections. She recalled every morning the doctor would take her to the window and reach in his lab coat for a small green stone. He would then rub it across her eye. This was very painful and made her cry. One day while at lunch, she spotted her mother across the crowded hall. The family was finally reunited.

Years later, while watching a special show on Ellis Island, they spoke of an common eye infection by emigrating Italians. Called 'Mediterranean Eye' or Trachoma, a doctor would treat the encrustation around the eye by rubbing a small jade colored bar of medicine (copper based] on the eye. After a few weeks the infection was reduced and emigration was allowed.

Notes for RODOLFO CALIMERO PIETRO ANTONIO CARMINO FAIELLA:

My Uncle Rodolfo (Rudy) Faiella was a professional wrestler in the 1920s. He was known as 'The Whirlwind'. The stories told by his brother Americo and sons Alfred and Luigi spoke of a man of great strength. Once he got a grip on his opponent, it was all over.

As young men, Americo and Rodolfo would travel from town to town giving wrestling demonstrations and challenging the Italian men to matches for money. Rodolfo rarely lost.

As one story goes, while standing in a railroad yard, Rodolfo and Americo were discussing a possible match with a group of men. Rodolfo looked down at a cast iron train rail and said he could lift it completely off the ground all by himself.

Everyone looked at the rail. It was a massive ' I ' beam about 30 feet long. A few men tried to lift up one end and could barely get it a few inches off the ground. The bets were placed.

Rodolfo grabbed one end and hoisted over his shoulder. He walked down the rail to the center and lifted it off the ground in one quick move.

Notes for ALFRED ALBANO GUIDO LODICO:

My father's nickname was 'Bed'. Many of his closest friends, even most of our relatives thought it was given to him because of his fondness to sleep in late in the morning after spending all night out.

The truth is, his mother Francesca used to call for him by yelling "Beddu". Beddu is the Sicilian word for handsome. His friends picked up on the name and the nickname stuck.

He married PRUDENCE THATCHER MAGEE 15 Sep 2002. She was born 19 Apr 1954.

Notes for ROBERT (BOBBY) PLANTE:

OBIT: Longtime charter boat Captain Robert A. Plante of Oak Bluffs, better known as “Edgar,” a man of strong convictions, who passed on his love of the ocean and fishing to a wide circle of those close to him and his many clients over the years, died Wednesday, Sept. 24, 2014, after suffering a long illness. Prudence Thatcher Magee, his best friend of 35 years and beloved wife of 12 years, his stepdaughter Molly Magee, and close friend Garreth Heath were by his side when he closed his eyes. He was 67.

Robert, known as both “Edgar” and “Bob” to family and friends, was born on Feb. 17, 1947, in North Attleboro. He graduated from North Attleboro High School in 1964.

Edgar joined the Army and served in Vietnam beginning in December 1965. A combat veteran, he received a Purple Heart with one Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster, a Vietnam Service Medal with one Bronze Service Star and a Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal with Device. He received an honorable discharge in September 1967. A proud veteran, Edgar was a member of the Disabled American Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Following his Army service, Edgar attended various colleges and ultimately received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

Edgar’s love of fishing began at an early age, when his father would take him and his sister Eleanor to a canal in their neighborhood. He spent many summer days visiting his Aunt Babs, who loved him like a son, and they often fished together at a reservoir near the Head of the Bay at Buzzards Bay. He was a father figure to many, and taught his nephew Chris Clark, close friend Garreth Heath, and many others to fish, and encouraged both Chris and Garreth to become boat captains.

Kind, quick-witted, and gregarious are only a few of the adjectives friends and family use to describe Edgar. He had the courage of his convictions, and firm beliefs that he stood by. Fun-loving and adventurous, Edgar loved to travel, especially to warm climates to test the waters fishing.

Edgar was a longtime resident and member of the business and social community on Martha’s Vineyard. His charter fishing-boat business was born in Oak Bluffs harbor in the late 1970s on board the The Piano, and subsequently The Banjo. Many have wonderful fish stories that all begin aboard the deck of The Banjo, which he shared with his Labs Slick and Rip.

Edgar and Prudy were married aboard The Banjo by his nephew and first mate, Chris Clark, on Sept. 15, 2002. His best man was John Grimes.

Edgar's impact on the lives of others cannot be adequately expressed, and he will be missed beyond measure by those who had the chance to know and love him. Many more lives will be touched by the memories that he leaves behind and the lessons he taught, which will be shared for years to come.

In addition to his devoted wife Prudy, Edgar is survived by his stepchildren, Owen Silver of Mount Pleasant, Mich., and Molly Magee of Oak Bluffs; a brother, David Plante; sister Eleanor Clark and her husband Arthur; nephew Chris Clark and wife Heather, and their children Hadleigh and Hunter; niece Deborah Gould; niece Donna Clark and her children Ryan, Shane, Kyle, and Morgan; and all of North Attleboro. He is also survived by his favorite aunt, Eleanor Babs Plante of Attleboro, sisters-in-law Carol Thatcher, Janine Thatcher Moreis and her husband Keith, and their children Tyler, Darrell, and Kelsey; and his mother-in-law, Betty Thatcher. Bob is predeceased by his parents Eugene and Rena (Albertini) Plante, and a brother, Ronald Plante.
